Of All Things...

National Hymn

(Samuel Francis Smith, D.D. 1832)

My Country, 't is of thee
 Sweet of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
 Land, where my fathers died,
 Land of the pilgrim pride,
 From every mountain-side
 Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee
 Land of the noble, free,
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills;
 My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
 And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song:
 Let mortal tongues awake,
 Let all that breathe partake,
 Let rocks their silence break,
 The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to thee,
 Author of liberty,
 To thee we sing:
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by thy might,
 Great God, our King.

Samuel Francis Smith, a baptist minister and editor, was born in Boston, Mass., Oct. 21, 1808, and graduated at Harvard College in 1829. He was a prominent contributor to the Encyclopaedia Americana, and since 1854 has been the editor of the publications of the Baptist Missionary Union. His home was in Newton, Mass.

Office of The Diocesan Bishop

July 3, 2026

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

All of our parishes will take up a collection next weekend, July 11/12, to support Catholic Relief Services, which provides aid to vulnerable people affected by war, natural disasters, and exploitation.

Human trafficking is the exploitation of a person compelled through force, fraud, or coercion to provide work or service, regardless of nationality, citizenship or geographic location. Poverty, isolation from the support of family and friends, and cultural or language barriers are among the factors that place people at risk of trafficking. In light of these challenges, successful anti-trafficking efforts must involve communities that can recognize the signs of trafficking and provide direct assistance to victims. School teachers, parish staff and clergy, and health care providers at community clinics — with training to recognize the signs of human trafficking in their own communities — can be effective in combating the exploitation of those they serve.

With funds received through the annual Catholic Relief Services collection, the Office of Migration and Refugee Services (MRS) of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops launched a pilot program to combat human trafficking in certain U.S. dioceses. Working with local partners, MRS staff assessed the challenges facing those communities, trained local leaders, and helped them establish networks to respond to the needs of victims.

Please prayerfully consider how you can support this 2026 collection. To learn more about the collection and the people who benefit, visit www.usccb.org/catholic-relief. Thank you again for all you do, prayerfully and financially, to help those burdened by poverty, famine, war, and natural catastrophes.

Assuring you and all those you love of my continued remembrance in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and commending you to the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Apostles, I remain

Sincerely yours in our Lord Jesus Christ,

Most Reverend Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez, J.C.D.
Bishop of Palm Beach

Vocations Chalice Program

To promote family prayer and awareness of vocations, we are introducing the Vocation Chalice Program. Each week, a parishioner will take the chalice home, put it in a prominent place, and pray daily for vocations. Prayer is a moving force in vocation development. Prayer is effective; prayer is powerful; prayer is essential. Few are called to priesthood, diaconate or consecrated religious life, but all are called to pray for vocations.

The Vocation Chalice Program is a wonderful way to involve our whole Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton parish family, especially our children, in praying for vocations, and in uniting in perpetual prayer for religious vocations.

The sign-up sheet is located in the vestibule. Please print your name, telephone number and the mass you wish to receive the chalice as clearly.

Consider St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in your will & Estate planning. Please contact the parish office if you have questions.

BAZAAR

Donations and Volunteers needed!

Monetary donations are needed to purchase supplies for the 2027 Christmas Bazaar. The profits will provide seed money for religious articles for First Communion and Confirmation candidates; age-appropriate Mass books, Bibles, rosaries and many other articles for the parish's mini gift shop. Volunteers with talents in crocheting, knitting, sewing, bead stringing, or using a glue gun are needed to create one-of-a-kind specialty items for the bazaar.

Instructions, fun and friendship provided.

Please contact Betsy Toole for more information. Call or text 650.906.9872 or email betsy5677@gmail.com

Funeral Homes have an understanding of the funeral rites and the practice of the parish. For your convenience, there are some Funeral Homes advertised in the back of our bulletin. For any questions or concerns, please contact the parish office.
