Of All Things...

All Saints & All Souls

This weekend, we begin a new month with the celebration of all saints and the commemoration of all the faithful departed. The Church teaches that each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ: either entrance into the blessedness of heaven - through a purification or immediately, - or immediate and everlasting damnation (CCC-1022).

Heaven

To live in heaven is to be with Christ and to live in Christ while retaining or rather find one's true identity and one's own name (Phil 1:23; Jn14:3; 1 Thess 4:17). The saints are those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified to live forever with Christ. They are like God for ever, for they see him as he is, face to face (1Jn 3:2; 1 Cor 13:12; Rev 22:4).

Saints are both officially recognized by the Church and also the innumerable people who have lived holy lives in a quiet and unobtrusive way without ever being canonized. This is the reason that the church celebrates the feast of all saints to include all those whose names have not been known and recognized by the faithful. Heaven is the ultimate end and fulfillment of the deepest human longings, the state of supreme, definitive happiness for those who live in communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels, and all the blessed (CCC-2024).

Purgatory or Final Purification

In 2 Maccabees 12:46, 'Judas made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin.'

From the beginning, the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead.

Souls in purgatory are all those who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified.

They are indeed assured of their eternal salvation but after death they undergo purification so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven (CCC-1030).

May the prayers of the militant church along with those of the triumphant church assist those who are being purged of their imperfection to fully participate in the resurrection of Christ!

Consider St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in your will & Estate planning.

Office of The Diocesan Bishop

October 30, 2026

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Next weekend, November 7/8, funds will be collected for a national initiative that supports activities reflecting Catholic moral and social teaching on human life and dignity. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is a sign of how the Church lives out the call from Scripture and Tradition to give special concern and priority to the needs of those who are living in poverty. Your support for this collection brings change to communities across the country and empowers the poor to transform their neighborhoods into reflections of the Kingdom of God.

For more than 50 years, CCHD has worked with dioceses and their bishops to award grants to local, low-income groups working to address the causes of poverty. By helping the poor to participate in the decisions and actions that affect their lives, CCHD offers a hand up, not a handout, helping people and communities overcome prejudice and build bridges of solidarity.

When you give to this collection, you make an impact nationally and at home, because 25% of your contribution stays within our own Diocese through Catholic Charities. This way you help your community build on this legacy of success while also helping regions across the United States.

With more than 250,000 individuals in our Diocese and 34.5 million nationwide living in poverty, your support of this collection can help change the lives of "the least of these" (Matthew 25). Your financial help for CCHD is an act of solidarity with our struggling brothers and sisters. Thank you for considering support for this worthwhile cause.

Assuring you and all those you love of my continued remembrance in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, and commending you to the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of the Apostles, I remain

Sincerely yours in our Lord Jesus Christ,

Session 3: The American Revolution and Roman Catholicism with Fr. Michael J. McNally

 Friday, Nov. 13 at 7:00 p.m. at Hirsch Hall

As we all know, the year 2026 marks the 250th Anniversary of the founding of our country. In conjunction with this celebration, we have decided to examine the relationship of Roman Catholics to the American Revolution. What changes did that Revolution bring to Catholics in the fledgling United States? In order to appreciate the new order of things religiously, we think it appropriate to examine the state of Roman Catholicism in British North America prior to the Revolution and the attitude towards Catholics that British colonists to North America brought with them from the mother country. As we shall see, not only did the American Revolution bring about a political revolution, but it also birthed a religious revolution for Roman Catholics in the United States.

All are welcome! Bring a friend and deepen your understanding of the beauty and richness of our Catholic faith.
