A Thanksgiving Prayer

Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks.

Thank you for all the graces and blessings.

You have bestowed upon us, spiritual and temporal:

our faith and religious heritage.

Our food and shelter, our health, the love we have for one another, our family and friends.

Dear Father, in Your infinite generosity, please grant us continued graces and blessing throughout the coming year.

This we ask in the Name of Jesus, Your Son and our Brother.

Amen.

Of All Things...

Christ the King

(Excerpt from the Liturgy of the Hours)

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, the sixteenth centenary of the Council of Nicaea at which the doctrine of the consubstantiality of Christ with the Father was defined. Its eschatological character was confirmed by its move, in the calendar reforms of the Second Vatican Council, to the final Sunday of the liturgical year.

The Pope asserted that the most effective defense against the destructive forces of the age is the recognition of the kingship of Christ; and, furthermore, a feast which is celebrated every year by everyone is a far better way of deploying that defense than any number of books written by learned people. First, we do; then we come to understand what it is that we are doing.

Each of us has been anointed with holy oil at baptism, as priest, prophet and king. The feast of Christ the King is thus a good moment to reflect on our kingship and on what "king" means and how to be one. Understanding the feast makes us understand our own call better.

One possible point of entry is in Genesis, where Adam sits in state and God brings him all the animals for him to give them names. To give names to one's subjects is the act of a king. The responsibility of a king is then to care for his subjects, which is why we are obliged to act as custodians of creation: something no other creature is. How far that responsibility takes one can then be seen in the King of the Universe, who is simultaneously the ruler of all and the servant of all. He rules in triumph; and he rules from the Cross.

Perhaps a way into a meditation on all this would be to ask, "Over whom am I, personally, king?" and hence "Whom am I called to serve?"

Session 3: Hildegard of Bingen: Leader, Mystic, Healer, Scientist, Composer with Dr. Michael Novak

Friday, Dec. 11 at 7:00 p.m. at Hirsch Hall

Interest in Hildegard of Bingen (1098-1179) has grown significantly in recent years. A remarkable polymath, she was a religious leader, healer, scientist, composer, and mystic whose influence extended across many fields. She founded several religious communities in the Rhineland region of present-day Germany and studied local plants for their medicinal properties. Her surviving musical works have enjoyed a modern revival as interest in medieval music has increased. Hildegard also documented numerous visionary experiences, which Pope Eugene III encouraged her to record. Recognizing the lasting spiritual value of her writings, Pope Benedict XVI declared her a Doctor of the Church in 2012, an honor granted to only a small number of saints renowned for their outstanding spiritual teaching.

All are welcome! Bring a friend and deepen your understanding of the beauty and richness of our Catholic faith.
